TEENAGE ADVENTURE CAMPS QLD Adventure News 2019

The Fantastic Volunteer Carers who gave up their week to make the camp happen

President's Message

TAC-Q President David Cameron & Lesley Freeman Receiving her Life Membership

Once again the noise of Wheel Chairs and Rowdy Teenagers Arrived for a week at the Rocks Resort Curumbin. Many thanks to the Management and Residents for Hosting us again.

Another successful luncheon was held in March at the Currumbin RSL, with Ex-Camper Nhon Huyhn as Guest Speaker. This is our main fund raising in order to run the Adventure Camps. So thank you to all who attended.

Fleays Nature Park Children's Days Out both went well, with about 1600 people attending over the two days.

Thanks to Southport Flying Club, Seaworld & Gold Coast Helitours for the chopper rides and breakfast again.

Other activities for the week were, Ten Pin Bowling at Robina, a Disco catered for by Palm Beach Currumbin Lionesses, Tweed Eco Cruises boat trip, Karaoke Night, A night at Draculars and breakfast at Currumbin Surf Club.

Special thanks to Glenn Jones from Gold Coast Cabs For co-ordinating all the cabs for camp week.

Lexi Catolico & Luncheon Guest Speaker Nhon Huynh received a standing ovation speaking of overcoming his fears of living with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy.
